London, England

London’s calling! Located along the River Thames, students will experience one of the world’s most diverse and multicultural cities. The city is steeped in history that has inspired artists, writers, and students for centuries. Walk in their footsteps while calling central London home for five weeks. Students in this program will have the option to visit Hampton Court, Stonehenge, Cambridge, the White Cliffs of Dover and more!

- POLS 2010/SOCI 2203: Gender Studies*
- ENGL 4106: Literary Genre: It’s Steampunk!
- THEA 4485: Drama in Performance
- History of Computing and Security - NOUWGEQUIV.
- ENGL 2110: World Literature 1: Travel and Discovery
- ART 1201: Understanding Visual Art
- PSYC 4270: Child Psychology
- HIST 2111/2112: US History: Americans in London
- ENGL 2120: British Literature
- THEA 1100: Theater Appreciation
- MGNT 4625: Culture of International Business
- Tours of London: 18th & 19th Century British Literature
- Sketchbook Drawing
- PSYC 4350: Cultural Diversity

Waterford, Ireland

Spend five weeks living and studying on the Emerald Isle! Waterford, a former Viking settlement that maintains a mediaeval charm, will be your home while you explore the mountains and valleys of southeastern Ireland and take in some of Europe’s most outstanding castles, ecclesiastical sties, prehistoric monuments, and 21st century cities. Students in this program will also spend a weekend visiting the rugged West of Ireland in Killarney as well as an overnight stay in Dublin.

- BUSA 2106: The Environment of Business
- ART 1201: Art Appreciation
- Writing about Travel
- ANTH 4885: Death in the Emerald Isles
- HIST 4285: War & Revolution: Struggle for Ireland Independence
- MGNT 4682: Leadership in Waterford
- Drawing
- World Literature II: Post-Colonial Struggle
- ANTH 1102: Intro Anthropology
- HIST 2111: Ireland and America

Madrid, Spain

Madrid is the geographic center of Spain and the historic center of the Hispanic world. During the five week European Council program you will experience the vibrancy of old and new Madrid in your classes, on your field trips, and on your own in the sites and streets of this great city. Past participants have been able to enjoy optional weekend excursions to North of Spain, South of Spain, Barcelona, or Portugal!

- SPAN 3102: Spanish Grammar & Composition
- SPAN 2001: Intermediate Spanish I
- SPAN 2011: Spanish Conversation
- PSYC 3010: Intro to Life Span Development
- Intro to Human Geography
- PSYC 4085: Interpersonal Relationships across Cultures
- Artist Travel Journal in Madrid
- HIST 1111: World Civilization to 1500
- HIST 1111: World Civilization to 1500
- HIST 2111: World Civilization to 1500
Edinburgh, Scotland  May 11 – May 24 OR May 25-June 7  | $2995

Join us for two weeks in historic Edinburgh and walk the same streets as historic figures such as Mary Queen of Scots, Adam Smith and William Wallace. See the sites that inspired literary figures such as Harry Potter, Sherlock Holmes, and Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde. Students will be fully immersed in Scottish culture as they explore this cosmopolitan city that is surrounded by a dramatic landscape of mountains, valleys, lochs and an extinct volcano. (courses vary for each session)

Lower Level Courses
- HIST 1112 or HIST 2111: Rebels, Kings, & Witches: Scotland Before 1865
- ENGL 2120: British Literature I: Fairyland to Hogwarts
- PSYC 1101: Introduction to Psychology

Upper Level Courses
- HIST 4285: Witch Burning to Body Snatching: The Transformation of Scotland (1550-1850)
- PSYC 4160: Psychology of Love
- ENGL 4106: Witchcraft & Wizardry in Scottish Writing

St. Petersburg, Russia  June 22– July 23  | $4950

Join us for one month in Russia and experience all this picturesque city has to offer! Created by Peter the Great as his "Window to Europe", St. Petersburg is often referred to as the Venice of the North as it combines its Russian heritage with a European outlook. Included in the program is a 4 day cruise on the Baltic Sea stopping in Finland, Sweden, and Estonia as well as an optional weekend excursion to Moscow.

- HIST 4285: St. Petersburg in War & Revolution
- POLS 2401: Global Issues

*Mandatory 2hour Russian Culture class for all students

Berlin, Germany  June 27– July 31  | $5300

Spend five weeks studying and living in Germany's capital and discover how Germany's turbulent past has shaped modern-day Europe. Youthful, artistic and hip, Berlin is one of Europe’s most populous cities but maintains a more tranquil feel as 1/3 of the city is composed of forests, gardens, and parks. Through coursework in a wide range of subjects and hands on exploration through excursions and cultural events, you’ll gain critical insight into contemporary Germany and Europe. Participants in this program will be able to take a day trip to Warnemünde to visit the Baltic Sea!

- GRMN 1001: Elementary German I
- ENGL 2112: World Literature II
- Western Civilization II
- CRIM 3241: Corrections
- GRMN 2002: Intermediate German II
- Life as A Cabaret
- CRIM 2000: Survey of Criminology
- Human Language
- HIST 4285: History of Nazi Germany

Paris, France  June 30 – August 5  | $5200

An urban adventure awaits you in Paris! Spend five weeks studying and living in the “City of Lights”, renowned for its cafes, art, architecture, food, history, and culture. Paris is an invitation to experience all the world’s cultures while maintaining a proud and distinctly French feeling. Discover the city’s allure for yourself when you study abroad in Paris with the European Council. Students will also have the options of visiting Alsace, Normandy, & the Loire River Valley.

- PSYC 3010: Human Development
- Intro to French Film
- SOCI 1101: Intro to Sociology
- ART 4985: Watercolor Painting in Paris
- FREN 4150: French Reading and Writing in Paris
- PSYC 4085: Psychology of Nutrition
- Feature and Travel Writing
- SOCI 4693/SPMG 3661: Sociology of Sport
- ART 1201: Art in the “City of Light”: An Introduction to Art in Paris
- FREN 3211: French Conversation
- ANTH 1102: Cultural Anthropology
- French 1002: Elementary French I