London, England

London’s calling! Located along the River Thames, students will experience one of the world’s most diverse and multicultural cities. The city is steeped in history that has inspired artists, writers, and students for centuries. Walk in their footsteps while calling central London home for five weeks. Students in this program will have the option to visit Hampton Court, Stonehenge, Cambridge, the White Cliffs of Dover and more!

AM Courses
- PHIL 2010: Intro to Philosophy
- POLS 4406: Politics of the British Isle: An Era of Change
- ART 4212: London’s Iconic Architecture and Interiors
- ENGL 2120: British Literature
- BIOL 2985: Human Genetics
- History of Computing & Security - NO UWG EQUIV.
- Heightened Language & Musical Theatre

PM Courses
- ART 3280: Art, Society, and Culture
- British Philosophy
- POLS 2301: Intro to Comparative Politics: Who Governs and How?
- It's Steampunk! Evolution of a Literary Genre
- Biology of Toxins and Venoms
- ENGL 2110: World Literature
- MGNT 4625: Culture of International Business
- Intro to Theatre
- Cultural Diversity

Waterford, Ireland

Spend five weeks living and studying on the Emerald Isle! Waterford, a former Viking settlement that maintains a mediaeval charm, will be your home while you explore the mountains and valleys of southeastern Ireland and take in some of Europe’s most outstanding castles, ecclesiastical sites, prehistoric monuments, and 21st century cities. Students in this program will also spend a weekend visiting the rugged West of Ireland in Killarney as well as an overnight stay in Dublin.

AM Courses
- POLS 2401: Introduction to Global Issues
- Multimedia Reporting: Feature Writing
- Global Social Work
- ART 1201: Intro to Art
- ENGL 2120: Erin Go Bragh: Irish & British Literature
- HIST 4285: War & Revolution: Struggle for Ireland Independence, 1795 - 1923

PM Courses
- POLS 4985: Colonialism, Rebellion, and Revolution
- Sports Communication
- SOCI 1101: Introduction to Sociology
- ART 4000: Sketchbook Drawing
- Writing Home Abroad

Madrid, Spain

Madrid is the geographic center of Spain and the historic center of the Hispanic world. During the five week European Council program you will experience the vibrancy of old and new Madrid in your classes, on your field trips, and on your own in the sites and streets of this great city. Past participants have been able to enjoy optional weekend excursions to North of Spain, South of Spain, Barcelona, or Portugal!

AM Courses
- SPAN 2001: Spanish 2001
- HIST 2111: US History
- Sustainability & the City: Studies in Film
- GEOG 3643 or GEOG 3085: The Mediterranean City
- PSYC 4350: Cross Cultural Psychology
- ART 1007: Drawing I

PM Courses
- SPAN 3101: Spanish Conversation
- HIST 4385: Transnational History
- ENGL 2110: World Literature I
- Sustainable Design in Spain
- PSYC 4140: Psychology of Gender
- ART 1201: Art Appreciation
Join us for two weeks in historic Edinburgh and walk the same streets as historic figures such as Mary Queen of Scots, Adam Smith and William Wallace. See the sites that inspired literary figures such as Harry Potter, Sherlock Holmes, and Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde. Students will be fully immersed in Scottish culture as they explore this cosmopolitan city that is surrounded by a dramatic landscape of mountains, valleys, lochs and an extinct volcano.

Lower Level Courses
- HIST 1112 or HIST 2111: Rebels, Kings, & Witches: Scotland Before 1865
- ENGL 2120: British Lit I: From Fairyland to Hogwarts: Fantasy Worlds of Scotland
- PSYC 1101: Introduction to Psychology

Upper Level Courses
- HIST 4285 (Topics in European History): Witch Burning to Body Snatching: The Transformation of Scotland (1550-1850)
- ENGL 4106 (Genre): The Devil Went Down to Scotland: Witchcraft and Wizardry in Scottish Writing
- PSYC 4085: Psychology of Scottish Ghosts & Second Sight

St. Petersburg, Russia
June 23–July 23 | $4950

Join us for one month in Russia and experience all this picturesque city has to offer! Created by Peter the Great as his “Window to Europe”, St. Petersburg is often referred to as the Venice of the North as it combines its Russian heritage with a European outlook. Included in the program is a 4 day cruise on the Baltic Sea stopping in Finland, Sweden, and Estonia as well as an optional weekend excursion to Moscow. *Mandatory 2hour Russian Culture class for all students: (XIDS 2002: What do you know about Russia?)

AM Courses
- RUSS 1001/1002/2001/2002 Russian Language
- HIST 4285: St. Petersburg in War & Revolution
- ECON 4470: International Economics
- ART 1007: Drawing/Water Media I
- ART 4295: Modern & Contemporary Art in St. Pete

PM Courses
- FORL 4185: Russian Literature
- HIST 4285: Gender, Race and Communism
- Current Issues in Economics: Russian
- ART 4000: Drawing/Water Media II
- ART 4295: Art, Society & Culture: Contemporary Art in St. Pete

Berlin, Germany
June 28 – August 1 | $5300

Spend five weeks studying and living in Germany’s capital and discover how Germany’s turbulent past has shaped modern-day Europe. Youthful, artistic and hip, Berlin is one of Europe’s most populous cities but maintains a more tranquil feel as a 1/3 of the city is composed of forests, gardens, and parks. Through coursework in a wide range of subjects and hands on exploration through excursions and cultural events, you’ll gain critical insight into contemporary Germany and Europe. Participants in this program will be able to take a day trip to Warnemünde to visit the Baltic Sea!

AM Courses
- GERM 1001: Elementary German I
- HIST 4285: History of German Scientist
- SOCI 1101: Introduction to Sociology
- HIST 1112: World Civilization II
- MUSC 1100: Music Appreciation

PM Courses
- GERM 2002: Intermediate German II
- ENGL 2112: World Literature II
- Berlin at the forefront of Artistic Sessions
- HIST 4285: History of Nazi Germany
- SOCI 4623: Sociology of Food and Culture

Paris, France
June 28 – August 5 | $5200

An urban adventure awaits you in Paris! Spend five weeks studying and living in the “City of Lights”, renowned for its cafes, art, architecture, food, history, and culture. Paris is an invitation to experience all the world’s cultures while maintaining a proud and distinctly French feeling. Discover the city’s allure for yourself when you study abroad in Paris with the European Council. Students in this program will also have the options of visiting Alsace, Normandy, the Loire River Valley, and Euro Disney.

AM Courses
- CHEM 1100: Chemistry of Warfare
- PSYC 3010: Human Development
- Americans in Paris: 20th Century Expatriate Literature
- ENGL: British Romanticism
- ART 4985: Watercolor Painting in Paris
- SOCI 4999: Black Culture in Paris Today
- ANTH 1102: Introduction to Anthropology
- POLS 4985: Crisis in European Union
- FREN 4150: French Reading and Writing

PM Courses
- CHEM 4485: Medicinal Chemistry
- PSYC 4085: Psychology of Nutrition
- ENGL 2110: World Literature II: City of Lights and Literature
- ENGL 2110: World Literature I
- POLS 4985: Global Issues: Muslims in France
- Cultural Anthropology: Culture and Diversity of France
- ART 1201: Art in the "City of Light": An Introduction to Art in Paris
- Death in Paris
- FREN 3100: French Reading & Writing in Paris
- French Conversation