London, England

June 29 – August 2 | $5350

London’s calling! Located along the River Thames, students will experience one of the world’s most diverse and multicultural cities. The city is steeped in history that has inspired artists, writers, and students for centuries. Walk in their footsteps while calling central London home for five weeks. Students in this program will have the option to visit Hampton Court, Stonehenge, Cambridge, the White Cliffs of Dover and more!

AM Courses
- PSYC 1101: Intro to Psychology
- POLS 4406: Politics of the British Isle: An Era of Change
- HIST 1112: Survey of World History II
- THEA 2050: Voice, Dictation, and British Dialects for Performers & Speakers
- ENGL 2110: World Literature I: Travel & Discovery
- COMM 1110: Principles of Public Speaking
- History of Computing & Security

PM Courses
- ART 1201: Art Appreciation
- PSYC 4085: Psychology of British Ghosts & Mediums
- POLS 2301: Intro to Comparative Politics: Who Governs and How?
- HIST 4285: History of the Industrial Revolution
- THEA 1100: Introduction to Theater
- ENGL 4145 (Victorian Lit): Tours of London in Lit & Visual Culture
- Public Relations Crisis Communications

Waterford, Ireland

June 15 – July 20 | $5200

Spend five weeks living and studying on the Emerald Isle! Waterford, a former Viking settlement that maintains a mediaeval charm, will be your home while you explore the mountains and valleys of southeastern Ireland and take in some of Europe’s most outstanding castles, ecclesiastical sites, prehistoric monuments, and 21st century cities. Students in this program will also spend a weekend visiting the rugged West of Ireland in Killarney as well as an overnight stay in Dublin.

*Mandatory 1 hour Irish Culture class for all students (XIDS 2001: What do you know about Ireland?)

AM Courses
- POLS 2401: Introduction to Global Issues
- Multimedia Reporting
- ENGL 2110: World Literature I
- Death in the Emerald and British Isles
- MKGT 4885: Intro to Business: Lessons Learned from Rock Legends
- HIST 2111: US History to 1877: How the Irish Came to America

PM Courses
- POLS 4985: Colonialism, Rebellion, and Revolution
- COMM 1154: Foundations of Mass Communication
- ENGL 4106 (Genre): Irish Folklore & Creativity
- ANTH 1102: Introduction to Anthropology
- MKTG 3810: Principles of Marketing: International Marketing in a Digital World

Madrid, Spain

June 29 – August 4 | $5500

Madrid is the geographic center of Spain and the historic center of the Hispanic world. During the five week European Council program you will experience the vibrancy of old and new Madrid in your classes, on your field trips, and on your own in the sites and streets of this great city. Past participants have been able to enjoy optional weekend excursions to North of Spain, South of Spain, Barcelona, or Portugal!

AM Courses
- SPAN 3101: Spanish Conversation
- SPAN 2001: Spanish 2001
- HIST 1111: World Civilization I
- ENGL 4115 (Renaissance) or ENGL 4188 (Major Author): Cervantes & Shakespeare
- POLS 4515: Terrorism & Insurgency
- ANTH 1102: Introduction to Anthropology
- ART 1007: Drawing I or ART 4000: Drawing II

PM Courses
- SPAN 3102: Spanish Grammar & Composition
- HIST 4285 (Topics in European History): Muslims, Christians, and Jews in Medieval Spain
- ENGL 2110: World Literature I
- XIDS 2301: Introduction to International Studies
- Food and Culture of Spain
- ART 1201: Art Appreciation
Edinburgh, Scotland

Join us for two weeks in historic Edinburgh and walk the same streets as historic figures such as Mary Queen of Scots, Adam Smith and William Wallace. See the sites that inspired literary figures such as Harry Potter, Sherlock Holmes, and Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde. Students will be fully immersed in Scottish culture as they explore this cosmopolitan city that is surrounded by a dramatic landscape of mountains, valleys, lochs and an extinct volcano.

Lower Level Courses
- HIST 1112 or HIST 2111: Rebels, Kings, & Witches: Scotland Before 1865
- ENGL 2120: British Lit I: From Fairyland to Hogwarts: Fantasy Worlds of Scotland

Upper Level Courses
- HIST 4285 (Topics in European History): Witch Burning to Body Snatching: The Transformation of Scotland (1550-1850)
- ENGL 4106 (Genre): The Devil Went Down to Scotland: Witchcraft and Wizardry in Scottish Writing

St. Petersburg, Russia

Join us for one month in Russia and experience all this picturesque city has to offer! Created by Peter the Great as his “Window to Europe”, St. Petersburg is often referred to as the Venice of the North as it combines its Russian heritage with a European outlook. Included in the program is a 4 day cruise on the Baltic Sea stopping in Finland, Sweden, and Estonia as well as an optional weekend excursion to Moscow.

Mandatory 2 hour Russian Culture class for all students: (XIDS 2002: What do you know about Russia?)

AM Courses
- HIST 4285 (Topics in European History): St. Petersburg in War & Revolution
- ECON 4470 (Comparative Economic Systems): International Economics

PM Courses
- FORL 4185: Russian Literature
- HIST 4285 (Topics in European History): Gender, Race and Communism
- ECON 4485: Russian Business Culture & Business Environment (Prerequisite: Principles of Macro & Micro Econ)

Berlin, Germany

Spend five weeks studying and living in Germany’s capital and discover how Germany’s turbulent past has shaped modern-day Europe. Youthful, artistic and hip, Berlin is one of Europe’s most populous cities but maintains a more tranquil feel as a 1/3 of the city is composed of forests, gardens, and parks. Through coursework in a wide range of subjects and hands on exploration through excursions and cultural events, you’ll gain critical insight into contemporary Germany and Europe. Participants in this program will be able to take a day trip to Warnemünde to visit the Baltic Sea!

AM Courses
- GERM 1001: Elementary German I
- HIST 4285: History of German Scientist
- PSYC 1101: Introduction to Psychology
- ENGL 2110: World Literature II

PM Courses
- GRMN 3102: German Language and Culture
- XIDS 2202: Renewable Energy & the Environment
- PSYC 4280: Psychology of Adulthood & Aging

Paris, France

An urban adventure awaits you in Paris! Spend five weeks studying and living in the “City of Lights”, renowned for its cafes, art, architecture, food, history, and culture. Paris is an invitation to experience all the world’s cultures while maintaining a proud and distinctly French feeling. Discover the city’s allure for yourself when you study abroad in Paris with the European Council. Students in this program will also have the options of visiting Alsace, Normandy, the Loire River Valley, and Euro Disney.

AM Courses
- Survey of Economics
- PSYC 3010: Human Development
- Introduction to Business
- Visual Rhetoric
- ENGL 2110: World Literature I
- ART 1201: Art Appreciation
- SOCI 4999: Black Culture in Paris Today
- SOCI 4999: Sociology of Sport
- HIST 2112: Americans & Paris: Survey of US History II
- FREN 4150: French Reading and Writing
- FREN 2002: Intermediate French II

PM Courses
- ECON 4485: Managerial Economics
- PSYC 4085: Psychology of Nutrition
- MGMT 4625 (International Management): International Business Management
- ENGL 3405 (Prof./Technical Writing): Travel Writing
- ENGL 4385: The French Connection (Literature)
- Art Appreciation
- Cultural Anthropology: Culture & Diversity of France
- SOCI 1101: Intro to Sociology
- HIST 4485 (Topics in American History): Black Paris: African American History in France
- FREN 1002
- FREN 3100: French Conversation & Composition